Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA (Gubbi).—I had made a representation to you in your Chambers about the majority of the legislators not having been invited for the State banquet. A discrimination has been made. I brought it to your notice the other day and you promised to look into it.

(SRI C. J. MUCKANNAPPA)

Mr. SPEAKER.—About that, I made enquiries with the Chief Secretary. He told me that there are certain rules in this respect and only ex-Ministers, Ministers, Deputy Ministers, Presiding Officers are invited and not others.

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—Many legislators are invited,

Mr. SPEAKER.--He told me that all legislators are not invited. Only certain legislators are given invitation.

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—When the Assembly is in Session, can such a discrimination be made by the Chief Secretary or the Government? We are not cringing for an invitation. But why should such discrimination be made, Sir?

Mr. SPEAKER—Instead of wasting much time over a question like this in this Assembly, I would like to suggest that if information is given to me, I will make further enquiries with the Chief Secretary. I had a talk with the Chief Secretary and he told me that Members are invited under certain rules.
